YRHS Program Promotion

Next meeting: YRHS Learning Improvement Plan (Mid-year review and Data Mining),
Fine Arts Tour for next meeting.

Mr. McDowell (PAA Department Head) toured the group through the remaining Practical & Applied Arts Areas, excluding Cooking and Photography.

SRC member Haley Koch presented the newly developed Extra-Curricular Code of Conduct.

Summary: All students that join a YRHS Extra-Curricular Activity /Group / Team / Club are to have read and signed off / agree to all of the expectations within it, also a parent / guardian and Coach or Advisor is required to sign off.

There are 5 primary areas within the Code of Conduct; Representation, Commitment, Social Media, Fees and Drugs & Alcohol. A definition of each area along with examples is supplied. There is a sixth category called activity specific enhancements which allows for individual coaches and advisors to make any additional expectations that may be more specific to their activity.

SCC Discussion / Feedback: A well written and thorough document. A question was asked about whether or not all student are aware that there are funds that can be accessed (if need be). We will look into promoting this so potential students are not missed in being allowed to participate / try out in any given sport / club.

Principal: M. Haczkwicz
Vice-Principal: J. McBride
Vice-Principal: D. Nesseth

Motion: M/S/C The SCC adopt the Extra Curricular Code of Conduct as presented with an addition to Section 1 "...officials, fans, coaches (advisors) and chaperones is also expected." to be added.

SCC Group Photo was taken at the meeting.

Mr. Haczkwicz voiced 'Shout Outs' to the various groups below;

1. Chad McDowell – photography program but also as Department Head of PAA. His additional new role as a senior Art Teacher has also not gone unnoticed. Thanks for doing a fantastic job.
2. RCR Committee – Hunger Games - Wanda's POV – a lot of fun to participate, but also to watch. The final elimination game was awesome – nurf gun war and dodge ball. For those that have watched the movie and read the book, it helped them bring it to life!
3. Raider for a Day – Awesome story was told...need to find a balance for the audience! Some parents have been there 4 times over, others are sending their oldest child to us for the first time. Seeing / hearing our story is very positive and we provide a caring and supportive environment in the Land of Orange.

Upcoming Events – listed in Principal's Report
