Principal's Report:

Highlights:

1. See Principal's report for calendar of events.
2. Flags at half mast today in recognition of St. Philip's Residential School Victims & Survivors – Keeseekoose First Nation
3. See staff changes on report
4. Grad Photos – Mitch, Family Photos informal shoot with Cap and Gown
5. School Calendar is awaiting approval – has been voted on
6. RTIME – working on some “kinks” and making it meaningful for both teachers and students
7. Quads vs. Semester – waiting for the results from the survey
 - a. M. Haczkevicz stated his appreciation for the students that joined that zoom meeting a month ago and spoke up about quads / versus / semesters.
8. COVID19 – lesser restrictions upon return from Feb. break
9. Sea Star Assembly / Service Recognition Awards – see report for details
10. Chromebooks for sale at the YRHS
11. RAIDER for a Day – Mr. Kyle, Thursday, March 10 - VIRTUAL
12. Graduation – potential changes, school continues to organize commencement, parent groups take over the banquet/dance/after grad party festivities.
13. School Cash – program that GSSD has brought in division wide so visa / MC can be used. School Cash has a transaction fee. The program should create less headaches for admin assistants. One downfall is that if a person chooses to pay cash, they still have to pay the transaction fee.
14. Recent Drug Related Activities at YRHS – RCMP involved for those that were selling, SHA involved in providing an education / support for students that were involved in either using and/or were a “periphery” kid.
15. Awards Night – June 9 in person, June 20-24 if virtual
16. Going from “Good to Great” – recap- see report
17. Staff Wellness Wagon – Mr. Kyle

18. Approvals:

- a. MOTION: M/S/C approves the 2022-23 school fees at $100.00.
- b. MOTION: M/S/C agrees to purchase “goodies” from YRHS school cafeteria for the wellness wagon for Staff Appreciation in the amount not exceeding $300.00.

GSSD Board Report: Steve Variyan – sent regrets, no report

New Business: – nil

Next Meeting Date – April 5, 2022 at 7 pm

Adjourn: 8:03, Danielle Maystrowich
